SUBJECT No. 76.

Empowering Chikmagalur Municipality to depute two non-official members to the Representative Assembly.

Messrs. B. Kesaviah and T. B. Mallegowda, Chikmagalur Taluk and C. Srinivasa Rao, Kadur District Board.

Summary of discussion.—While other municipalities which have less population and are of less importance than Chikmagalur are allowed to depute two members to the Representative Assembly, Chikmagalur Municipality is allowed to return only one member. It may be allowed to return two members to the Assembly as usual.

Mr. Rasul Khan.—Only one member is quite enough for the Municipality.

Dewan.—Noted.

SUBJECT No. 77.

Supply of foodstuffs.

Messrs. K. Ramakrishna Iyer Kolar Taluk and T. Srinivasachar, Kolar Municipality.

Summary of Representation.—The present seasonal condition in the Kolar District is very grave and has given room for much anxiety to the agricultural class. It is feared that this year also will be a famine year. The supply of foodstuffs is not quite adequate. Early precautions may be taken for a sufficient supply of stock of foodstuffs.

Withdrawn.

SUBJECT No. 78.

Kannada Typewriters.

Mr. Karnik Krishnamurti Rao, Magadi Taluk.

Mr. Purushottam Anandagiri Gosai.—Kannada is the language of the country and modi is difficult to read. It is high time that an order is placed for the manufacture of Kannada Typewriters. In the same way as English Typewriters are made available to various offices, Kannada Typewriters may also be supplied.

Director of Industries and Commerce.—If people come forward to purchase 200 or 300 Typewriters, necessary arrangements will be made to place an order for the same.

SUBJECT No. 79.

Publication in Kannada of all Laws of the State.

Mr. N. Rajagopala Iyengar, Mysore Bar Association.

Mr. Purushottam Anandagiri Gosai.—People in villages do not know the laws of the country. Since a large number of people are not conversant with the English language, it is very necessary that all the laws should be translated into Kannada.

Dewan.—This is being done. It takes time.

SUBJECT No. 80.

A hall for Representative Assembly Meetings.

Mr. Abbas Khan, Central Mahommedan Association, Bangalore.

Mr. Abbas Khan.—As the present hall is wanting in acoustic properties, it is very necessary to construct a new Hall.

Dewan.—Plans and estimates are ready and the approval of His Highness has also been obtained. On account of financial stringency, it is not possible to take up the work in the near future.

SUBJECT No. 81.

Abolition of A and B schedules among Assistant Commissioners.

Mr. Hutchveere Gowda, Gubbi Taluk.

Mr. Hutchaveere Gowda.—Though the prospect and promotion of the two classes of officers are the same, it is not known why this distinction should be maintained. The differentiation of the two schedules may therefore be done away with.

Dewan.—Noted.
